

Designated Parking Area for visitors to Dyfed-Powys Police Authority

Please find below a map of Police Headquarters at Llangunnor, and the area marked which will be a designated parking area for visitors. Upon turning off Heol Llangunnor please take the first immediate right following the road ahead you will see the road narrow onto a block paved area which is signed Police Authority Parking. Please enter this area and park appropriately.

There are two disabled bays  in front of the Police Authority building, however these cannot be reserved. Should you require any help in getting to the Police Authority which is highlighted on the map as a blue spot then please ensure that you inform the Police Authority Office along with your estimated time of arrival and every effort will be made to support your needs.

